The association and its property will be administered and managed in accordance with the provisions in Parts 1 and 2 of this constitution.

2. Name

The association's name is Exeter Pride.

3. Objects

The charity's objects ('the objects') are:

3.1. To promote human rights, justice, and equality and diversity for the public benefit and in particular the elimination of discrimination and oppression on the grounds of sexual orientation or gender identity and expression, including in particular but not exclusively by:

- Promoting the history and culture of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and trans people together with other people of queer identities (LGBT+). In particular we celebrate and remember our communities' global tradition of resistance to societal oppression, a tradition that is epitomised and symbolised by the 1969 Stonewall Rebellion, which led to the global Pride movement;
- Raising the awareness of the public with regard to all aspects of discrimination in society and issues and difficulties affecting the lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans (LGBT) people;
- Cultivating a sentiment in favour of equality and diversity in particular through celebrating the diversity of LGBT communities
- Advancing education in LGBT+ history, culture, arts and well-being, and in equality and diversity whether by signposting to other organisations or services or producing materials;
- Producing publications, lectures, workshops, media and other means of communication;
- Staging an annual LGBT+ festival, and other events, that actively promote, develop, and showcase queer artists.

3.2. Such other objects as are charitable under the law of England and Wales as the trustees shall in their absolute discretion determine.

3.3. The activities of the charity shall be undertaken in particular but not exclusively in Exeter and the wider County of Devon (the areas of benefit). The activities undertaken benefit a sufficient section of the public by promoting positive values to all people regardless of their faith, sexual orientation, race, or gender. The trustees shall impose no unreasonable restrictions on the opportunity of persons to benefit from the activities undertaken by Exeter Pride.

3.4. Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and/or section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

4. Application of Income & Property

- 4.1. The income and property of the charity shall be solely used for the business of the charity's operation and the furthering of its charitable objects:
- a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by them when acting on behalf of the charity.
 - b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 4.2. None of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee from receiving:
- (a) a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity, providing a competitive procurement process (proportionate to the scale of expenditure) has been undertaken.

5. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

- 5.1. No charity trustee or connected person may:
- a) buy or receive any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
 - b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the charity;
 - c) be employed by, or receive remuneration from, the charity;
 - d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (5.2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission ('the Commission').  - c) Subject to sub-clause (5.3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the charity trustee or connected person.
 - d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

- e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

5.3. Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The charity and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 5.2(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions are satisfied:

- b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with them or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
- e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 5.
